

Feedback from our previous Workshops

"First Flight is the only NED consultancy which I've approached primarily because your web site presented an ethical and straightforward business. I am very pleased to confirm that this was also echoed throughout the Non Exec workshop last week and, from my perspective, this is fundamentally important."

"Thank you so much to First Flight for the Workshop. As a new-in-post NED I found it very useful."

"I didn't realise how complex/involved the (NED) role is, but I feel much better equipped now"

"I now understand much better how Boards work"

"A really good balance of speakers and topics - overall it was excellent!"

"It is clear that historically the entry to a NED role was very closed but it seems to be opening up"

"Excellent overall - a very happy customer"
